

10 of the best adults only resorts around the world

FEBRUARY 15, 2019

Leave the hustle and bustle behind

We love kids, but sometimes you just need to get away. These hotels and resorts around the world are kid-free zones.

The Point

Originally built as an Adirondack Great Camp, The Point is a Gilded Age escape from the city on the shores of Upper Saranac Lake. With just 11 rooms, you feel like you're a friend of the Rockefellers at this all-inclusive, adults-only retreat. Take one of the lightning bug boats out for a spin or go for a hike in the forest. And if the weather is less than perfect, there are billiards and darts in the pub, and you can help yourself to limitless drinks. Everyone comes together for supper each night after a leisurely cocktail hour, and the dress code is black tie on Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Of course, there's always the option to dine in the privacy of your cabin and order truffled popcorn for a midnight snack.
