Astonishing Adirondack Escape

Secluded, Safe, and Sensational // BY DANA FREEMAN

» ORIGINALLY built as a Great Camp for William Avery Rockefeller II, The Point is the first Relais and Châteaux hotel in North America. With only 11 guest rooms, this private, lake-front property's intimate size allows the staff to anticipate guests' every need. It is perfectly suited for travelers seeking a secluded, safe getaway.

With the assistance of a personal butler, The Point is happy to formulate over-the-top experiences.

Whether it's arranging a private island picnic or creating a one-of-a-kind, magical candle-lit dinner by the fire, the Point team is at your disposal.

This sprawling 75-acre lakeside estate offers countless activities throughout every season. In the spring and summer, guests can enjoy boating, fishing, tennis, waterskiing, croquet, badminton, swimming, wake surfing, kayaking, paddle boarding, and hiking. During the fall and winter, activities include cross-country skiing, ice skating, curling, and ice fishing.

Ready to snuggle in and read until your heart's content? Peruse the Algonquin, William Avery Rockefeller's private study, which is filled with an exciting collection of antique books. Take one of the volumes out to the Lean-to, which is tucked away at the Point-of-The Point. This spot is the most picturesque place to take in the magnificence of the Adirondacks.

This all-inclusive adult retreat welcomes adults and children 18 and over. However, if families want to buyout the resort for the ultimate over-the-top summer camp, they are welcome to bring their younger children. With a reputation for offering ultra-luxury, guests at The Point enjoy a private getaway that doesn't skimp on memorable experiences and personalized service. thepointresort.com
