Full Property Buyouts

Private hotel stays are more popular than ever before, with travelers still jittery about social distancing and health and safety issue.

Following is a rundown of several different properties that enable travelers to have full say over their vacation stays through full-property buyouts.

The Point

The Point, which is set on Saranac Lake in New York’s Adirondacks, “is the ideal place for a buyout,” said Holly Lombardo of Holly Lombardo Travel, an affiliate of Travel Experts. “It is a charming Gilded Age camp that is rustic yet luxuriously comfortable.

“With just 11 cozy lake-side cabins, it’s perfect for a family or small group of friends looking to reunite,” she said. “The Point has a fleet of vintage boats to sail the lake which is a must!”
