Vacation is an excellent excuse to forget real life and skirt your responsibilities. But if you're you've to be missing your furry friend (we see you, echoing in with doghouse day car ever 22 minutes), why not just bring them along? Afterall, early morning walks aren't the worst when you're on holiday. Pack your best dog travel bag and check out these dog friendly resorts:

The Point Resort, Upper Saranac Lake, New York

The first Relais and Châteaux hotel in North America, The Point is an intimate, lakefront Adirondack estate originally built as a Great Camp for William Avery Rockefeller II from 1930-1933. Today, The Point offers eleven distinct guest rooms where visitors receive access to all 75-acres of the secluded property and the staff anticipate guests' every need including anything their furry friend may like. Point's staff rolls out the red carpet for all dogs, no matter the size and they are allowed almost everywhere on property. Specially cooked meals and treats including "Bowser Beer," are all part of the fun a dog gets to experience while on property. Toys along with a dog bed and bowls are placed in the guest room upon arrival to make any discerning pup feel right at home. Dogs can partake in some seasonal adventure: pet life vests are provided for boating trips so they can enjoy lake rides as well. Not to mention exploring the abundance of hiking trails on property can make for a spectacular afternoon while taking in the lovely scenery.
